

Policy
CAW Local 240
Recreational Events

CAW Local 240 endorses the principle of recreational events sponsored and organized by the National CAW Recreational department and By SWORC

It is not the Policy of this Local to pay for, or subsidize in any way, any individual or group of members entrance fee for their participation in recreational events.

This does not preclude the Local from offering some assistance, should a member or group of members reach a semi final or final round of a tournament., with membership approval

All members participating in recreational events must sign a release of indemnification
